

MISSISSIPPI HEALTH CARE ASSOCIATION

PRESENT

THE LONG TERM CARE NURSING SYMPOSIUM

PRESENTED BY

FROSINI RUBERTINO

April 10, 2018

8:00 a.m. to 8:45 a.m. Registration

8:45 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

MHCA Auditorium - 303 Brame Road - Ridgeland, MS

This is a day for Nurses. It is a great day for us to recognize and demonstrate our appreciation to long-term care nurses. There will be give-aways upon arrival and door prizes throughout the day.

Presentation:

Frosini Rubertino will provide a combination of training on nursing documentation, as its relations to nursing clinical competencies as well as on dementia care and behavioral management. She will teach the attendees how to document to support care delivery using real-life case studies and critical thinking skills. She will discuss how nursing documentation is reflective of nursing competencies and quality care delivery. Included in her presentation on documentation will be a discussion on formats that help facilitate quality documentation. She will move in to a presentation on how a successful behavioral management program can enrich the lives of those living with dementia. She will teach approaches to prevent and minimize behavioral stress. Included in her presentation will be a discussion on the higher regulatory expectations of behavioral management as well as discuss non-pharmacological strategies to prevent behavior stress.
