Mississippi Health Care Association

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Lori Porter
Co-Founder, Chief Executive Officer

Lori is responsible for advancing the Association's mission and vision throughout skilled and assisted living communities nationwide. Lori is a nationally sought-after speaker on frontline development, team building and transforming workforces into CareForce's.

She brings more than 36 years skilled experience to the leadership of NAHCA. Lori was a CNA for seven years, marketing/admissions director for two years, a nursing home administrator for seven years and 21 years at the helm of NAHCA. Lori also published a book “Everything I Learned in Life I Learned in Long Term Care”. This book is an inside look on what it really like to be a CNA or Caregiver. Lori has dedicated her professional life to the championship of caregivers and CNAs.

Porter is dedicated to motivating, educating and developing frontline excellence. She is a motivational leader whose dedication to long term care is evident in every speech and in every communication.
